BY THE RIVERS OF BABYLON

CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. Doug Carter

In the silence of these moments let us draw near to God.

(a time of silent centering)

Holy One, speak to us words of wisdom.

We are listening.

Holy One, speak to us words of challenge

We are ready.

Holy One, speak to us words of hope.

We are needy.

Holy One, speak to us words of love.

We are eager.

Holy One, speak to us in our silence and in the noise of our lives.

Draw us into you that we may hear your still, small voice and heed your word.

* Please stand if able

OPENING HYMN COME AWAY FROM RUSH AND HURRY BEACH SPRING

Come away from rush and hurry to the stillness of God's peace;
From our vain ambition's worry, come to Christ to find release.
Come away from noise and clamor,
life's demands and frenzied pace;
Come to join the people gathered here to seek and find God's face.

In the pastures of God's goodness we lie down to rest our soul.
From the waters of his mercy we drink deeply, are made whole.
At the table of his presence all his saints are richly fed.
With the oil of his anointing into service we are led.

Come, then, children, with your burdens – life's confusions, fears, and pain.
Leave them at the cross of Jesus; take instead his kingdom's reign.
Bring your thirsts, for he will quench them –
he alone will satisfy.
All our longings find attainment when to self we gladly die.

WORDS OF WELCOME FOR DIGNITARIES, OFFICERS AND STAFF

COVENANT FOR DIALOGUE

Leader: "...speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament in which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love."
(Ephesians 4:15-16)

*Please stand if able

Left: We covenant with one another to sustain a congregational culture in which we will communicate with integrity and mutual respect, and in which our creative energy – both individual and collective – will be free to flourish.

Center: We will repeat in our own words what the other has said to confirm that we have understood them, and ask them to do the same if we feel we have not been understood.

Right: We will communicate directly with each other, using the first person, using "I."

Left: We will try to make our meaning clear and say what we mean and mean what we say.

Center: We will identify merit in another person's idea or suggestion before we identify its deficiencies.

Right: We will be willing to inquire into another person's reasons and reasoning.

Left and Right: We will listen to understand, but we don't necessarily have to agree.

Center: We will not say outside the meeting what we are unwilling to say inside the meeting."

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Rev. Mary Abbott

There are so many voices in our lives that clamor for our attention and we are too often drawn away from you, the Source of our Being. We say with our words that we want to follow in your way, but the paths of our lives tell a different story. Forgive us, O God, and turn us around. Unstop our ears and open our eyes that we might hear and see you abundantly present in our individual lives and in our life together as congregations and as the Vermont Conference.

MUSICAL RESPONSE

RESPOND

LITANY

Rev. Dr. Lynn Bujnak

You say you are doing a new thing among us and we respond:

but we have never done it that way before!

You say, “why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?” and we respond:

but we have always done it that way!

*Please stand if able

You say, “Come to me all you who are weary and are heavy laden and I will give you rest,” and we respond:

but there is so much to do and so little time to do it all.

Help us to hear your call to us ...

Sung Response

Psalm 46:10 – NCH 743

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

You say, “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.”, and we respond:

“Surely not I, Lord.”

You say, “you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you,” and we respond:

“Surely not I, Lord.”

You say, “Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, “Give them up,” and to the south, “Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth – everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

“Surely not I, Lord.”

Help us to hear your call to us ...

Sung Response

Psalm 46:10 – NCH 743

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

Hear the summons and call from God who reaches out to you and to me, calling each one of us to be the individuals that we have been created to be, to be the gathered people of God called to love and serve in our communities and world. When we are tempted to be brought down by all that can discourage and keep us from faithfulness, remember that God has promised that when we call and pray, we will be heard! When we open our hearts and search for God, God will be found!

* Please stand if able Fill us with your Spirit, O God that we might listen and hear, search and find, and then live into the hope and assurance that only comes from you.

Sung Response

CALL TO WORSHIP (from Psalm 63 - The Message) Rev. Susie Webster-Toleno

God – you're my God! I can't get enough of you! I've worked up such hunger and thirst for God, traveling across dry and weary deserts.

So here I am in the place of worship, eyes open, drinking in your strength and glory.

In your generous love I am really living at last!

My lips brim praises like fountains.

I bless you every time I take a breath;

my arms wave like banners of praise to you.

I eat my fill of prime rib and gravy; I smack my lips.

It's time to shout praises! If I'm sleepless at midnight,

I spend the hours in grateful reflection.

Because you've always stood up for me,

I'm free to run and play. I hold on to you for dear life, and you hold me steady as a post.

CALL TO WORSHIP Mr. Alan Parker

Praise God who is the Holy One, the Creator of all things!
God is doing new things, springing forth around us!
God makes a way for us in the wilderness and rivers in dry land.
God is doing new things, springing forth around us!
God says, "I formed you for myself to be my chosen people."
that we might declare God's praise and sing to the Holy One!
Confident in God's promise, trusting in God's ways, let us gather together in worship and praise.

HYMN NOW LET US ALL, IN HYMNS OF PRAISE NCH 529
TUNE: ELLACOMBE

Now let us all in hymns of praise, bear witness with one voice
To God's redeeming work in Christ and bid the world rejoice.
Today we call to mind the things that time cannot erode:

* Please stand if able

What God, Creator of the world, is doing for our good.

What changes, challenges, and tests the Church of Christ survives!
How rich the records left to us of dedicated lives!
Still must the Church proclaim to all, both now and evermore,
God's house to be an open house, and Christ the open door.

Of all our labors who can say what harvest there shall be
When time, that limits and distorts, becomes eternity?
Then shall our hymns, rehearsed below, be perfect praise above,
As face-to-face, we fully know the truth that God is love.

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

Rev. Rona Kinsley

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we are too conformed to this world and the ways of the past. We do not allow your Spirit to transform our minds or challenge our worldly ways. We have failed to live into the promises we have made at our baptism to follow in the way of Jesus and to be led by your Spirit. We have not loved our neighbors or our enemies. We consume most of the world's resources without regard for those who beg for food, shelter, health care, and justice. Forgive our sin and help us to love unconditionally as Christ has called us to love that this world may know we are disciples of the One who gave his life for us and conquered sin and death forever.

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE ELECTED LEADERS

Leader: There are those who have said “YES” to serve on the Vermont Conference Board of Directors, Departments and Committees – both newly elected and those continuing in service. As their names are read, I invite each one to rise in place.

Leader: God has called you by name. We have called you by name.

You have been called to participate in one of the covenantal responsibilities required to be the church – the living body of Jesus Christ on earth.

Elected Ones: We commit ourselves to serving God through our work together as the Vermont Conference, its associations, and congregations. We will be open to the leading of God’s Spirit as we serve in love and faith.

* Please stand if able

THE COMMISSIONING OF ALL

Leader: You have been called to participate in one of the covenantal responsibilities required to be the church – the living body of Jesus Christ on earth.

People: We will respond to God's activity in the world by sharing our time, talent, energy, and faithfulness in the places where we live and work and worship. We covenant to pray and to discern the dreams and visions God has for the Vermont Conference. We are committed to the common life of our churches – that individually and gathered together our life will be enriched and enlivened by the love of God and the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Leader: God invites each one of us to venture out into God's world, to devote ourselves to God's teaching and to commit ourselves to caring for God's people. Inspired by the Spirit, God transforms us into God's people that we might live and love and be Jesus' active body in the world.

EVERYONE: Holy God, the privilege is ours to be called to share in your loving, healing, and reconciling mission and ministry. Since without you we can do no good thing: may your Spirit make us wise; may your Spirit guide us; may your Spirit renew us; may your Spirit strengthen us so that we will be strong in faith; discerning in proclamation; courageous in witness; persistent in good deeds. Amen.

I will betroth you to myself for ever with integrity and justice, with tenderness and love.

I will betroth you to myself with faithfulness and you will come to know me.

I will say: You are my people and you will answer: You are my God.

For once you were outside mercy but now you have been given mercy.

This is our hope, our living hope and we shall be glad.

Once you were not a people, but now we are God's people.

PRAISE MY SOUL THE GOD OF HEAVEN

Praise, my soul, the God of heaven!
glad of heart your carols raise;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
who, like me, should sing God's praise?
Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the Maker all our days.

Praise to God for grace and favor shown to all who are oppressed.
God shows steadfast love forever,
slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Glorious is God's faithfulness!

Mother-like, God tends and spares us, knowing well our fragile frame.
Father-like, God gently bears us,
tenderhearted, slow to blame.
Alleluia! Alleluia! All within me praise God's name!

Frail as summer's flower we flourish:
blows the wind, and it is gone.
But while mortals rise and perish,
God's compassion still lives on.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the high eternal One!

Angels, teach us adoration
you who see God face to face;

LITANY

Rev. Tracy Fye Weatherhogg

We are ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven.
We flip off this series of words too readily.
But they are precious words to us because they tell the whole tale of our life, and we savor them:
ransomed ... healed ... restored ... forgiven.
Made new, made innocent, made possible.
More than that, these words that tell our truth bind us to you and to your passionate truthfulness.
While the words linger sweetly on our lips, we are summoned beyond ourselves – as we always are – summoned to you, in awe and doxology, and exuberance.

SUNG RESPONSE SEND OUT YOUR LIGHT

*Send out your light, Lord, send your truth to be our guide.
Then let them lead us to the place where you reside.*

In the middle of our praise which causes us to float very light, we are jarred and sobered:

Dwellers all in time and space ...
in time ...
in place ...

That is how it is when we praise you. We join the angels in praise and we keep our feet in time and place ... awed to heaven, rooted in earth. We are daily stretched between communion with you and our bodied lives, spent but alive, summoned and cherished but stretched between. And we are reminded that before us there has been this One truly divine, at ease with the angels, truly human, a dweller of time and space. We are thankful for him and

The Stage Display

The stage display is an interpretation of Jeremiah 29: 11-14, the conference theme scriptures. The Friday evening display opens with forty candles placed at random throughout the stage area. This random scattering represents the nations and places where God had driven his people, Jeremiah 29:14.

Saturday morning opens with the candles being drawn closer together representing Jeremiah 29:14, "I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile."

For Saturday evening a large heart takes form on stage representing the love of God for his people; Jeremiah 29:12, "Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. 13 When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart. 14. I will let you find me."

The stage display slightly changes for the Sunday morning Communion service: Jeremiah 29:11, "For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope."

The heart remains but candles now flank each side of the Communion table representing God's hands offering the Communion table - a future of hope.

In the procession of candles a representative of each association will bring forth a candle to be placed on the Communion table. The used, vintage pillar candles in various shades of ivory represent the welcoming and returns of all people to the Communion table.

The stage display was designed and created by Mr. Ned Davis, Minister of Liturgical Floral Design.
