

How do we get to the Bishop Booth Center?

From I-89, take exit 14W onto Main Street, past the UVM campus. Continue through town to the bottom of the hill. Turn right on Battery Street and stay in the left lane. Battery Street will curve to the left around the park and become North Avenue. Continue north on North Avenue to Institute Road (also the entrance to Burlington High School). The entrance to Rock Point & the Bishop Booth Center is on the right just past Burlington High School.

Who will be leading us?

The Convocation Planning Team is pleased to welcome Amy Stratton-Smith. Amy has a MTS from Methodist Theological School in Ohio and attended Colgate Rochester Crozier Divinity School. She has a Diploma in the Art of Spiritual Direction from San Francisco Theological Seminary. As a Spiritual Director living in Rochester, New York, Amy has taught and led spiritual formation classes and retreats for Mercy Spirituality Center, local churches, women's groups and for the Presbytery of Genesee Valley. The summer Amy taught a course at Chautauqua Institute entitled "Exploring the Enneagram".

About Convocation...

The 2017 Vermont Conference Clergy Convocation will once again be held at Rock Point's Bishop Booth Conference Center in Burlington, Vermont!

This year we will dip deeply into a particular biblical story...

The Samaritan Woman's Encounter with Jesus at a Well

...and find our own place in it—but also engage disciplines and practices that promise to keep us rooted in the things that truly matter.

To be rehydrated...and to open up ways to practice spiritual direction in community.

And, of course, there will be wonderful fellowship and reconnecting with colleagues, and free time for you to do what you need to do for this to be a truly enriching and renewing experience.
