Dear XXXXXX

Our Search Committee has enjoyed learning about you and your gifts and skills in ministry as we have studied your ministerial profile. At this time we are continuing to receive and review other profiles as well.

We want you to know that we remain interested in your candidacy as we seek to discern about the person who will provide the best pastoral leadership for this time in our congregation's life.

We hope to be able to update you about our progress in _____ weeks. In the meantime, if you find yourself called to another setting, please let us know.

We pray for God's guidance in your search and ours.

Thank you for your interest in us.

Sincerely,
