

224th Annual Meeting of the Vermont Conference

Our keynoter is The Rev. Dr. Rob Voyle of the Appreciative Way and a leader in appreciative inquiry.

Dr. Voyle is an Episcopal Priest, executive coach, and a licensed psychologist. In addition to a doctorate in psychology he has degrees in mechanical engineering and theology.

He is an internationally recognized leader in the use of appreciative inquiry in church related settings.

As the founder and Director of the Clergy leadership Institute he is committed to providing advanced training in clergy leadership to enhance ministry effectiveness.

His work history includes twenty years of ordained ministry, interposed with episodes of research and development engineering, behavioral medicine, clinical psychology, and organizational consulting.

Rob's personal mission is to be "helpful, humorous, and healing," which is manifested in a passion for conducting training and consultation. He is a gifted storyteller and has a penchant for mischievously confronting listeners with new insights that are both affirming and liberating.

Over 95% of the participants in Rob's workshop consistently rate Rob's presentations as: "one of the best training program I have attended in years"
