"Election Prayers"

I hope that you like me have enjoyed reading and praying the Election Prayers that were on our website and many other locations over the past 20 days leading up to the election. I know that several pastors told me that they put these prayers out on Facebook or other social media, where they received an even wider audience. I so appreciated our gifted writers as they invited all of us to join them in asking God for much-needed grace!

I am writing this article before election day, because we have a deadline for Ekit, and so I have absolutely no idea what is going to happen on election day, or what the situation will be in our nation when you are reading this Ekit article a day later or two days later after election day. Today may be a day when you are in a lot of pain because of what has happened. Today may be a day when you are very joyful because of what has happened! Or today may be a day where you are anxious because there is still so much that is uncertain.

In the end, we are called to be disciples of Jesus in this time, as in every other time. As Tracy Weatherhogg wrote in her day 18 reflection on the Beatitudes, “those who are blessed are those who are poor in spirit, meek, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, the merciful, the peacemakers, and those who are persecuted.” May we be among them, to the glory of God!

Faithfully yours,
Paul

Boy Scouts of America Bankruptcy Document

What is Chapter 11 bankruptcy?

The Boy Scouts of America filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on February 18, 2020, largely in response to the large number of sexual abuse claims made against the organization.

Chapter 11 bankruptcy is also referred to as reorganization. It allows businesses time to restructure or reorganize their debts, while the business continues to operate.

Peacemaker's Pulpit – October 2020

Rev. Kim McKerley
Pastor, Bethany United Church of Christ in Randolph

The wonderful Willem Lange tells of a group of eight-year-old boys in a Sunday School class playing a game called “I Can Stop the Hurt”. The boys stood in a circle, shoulder to shoulder. The game began when one boy punched the shoulder of the boy next to him, who then did the same (a little harder) to the one next to him, and on it went.

When they'd made it once around the circle, the teacher said to them, “When it is your turn, you can end the game by saying, 'I can stop the hurt. Do that and the game will be over.’”

Round two began and then round three, the blows landing with increasing force. It seemed it would never end.

Finally, one of them blurted out, “I can stop the hurt!” With that, the game was over. And the boy who ended it, instead of being shamed, was celebrated, and became a hero to his peers.

“Kids recognize courage at least as quickly as the rest of us”, Lange observed.

Indeed, making peace takes courage.

It takes courage to break the cycle of violence.
It takes courage to refrain from repaying evil for evil.
It takes courage to speak truth to power.

Around our tables, across our nation, throughout our planet...may we summon the courage to stop the hurt.

I pray you courage in the struggle...

The Vermont Conference has an exciting opportunity for you - our ministers and churches.

This resource is made possible through the financial support offered to the Vermont Conference by local church support of Our Church's Wider Mission and private donations to Friends of the Vermont Conference. Thank you!

A gift of music and photos from Rev. Kathy Wonson Eddy

Kathy is offering permission for Vermont Conference UCC Churches to use music from her website in virtual worship.

Her website address is: kathywonsoneddy.com

Kathy asks three things:

1. That churches always include the text (visible to worshippers as they listen), the text author's name, and her name as composer
2. That churches make a donation to the Vermont Conference UCC or Black Lives Matter when a piece of her music is used
3. That churches email her at kathywonsoneddy@gmail.com , naming the piece used each time and which donation was made.

Does your church have an investment policy?

The United Church Fund is one of the financial ministries of the United Church of Christ and offers its expertise to local churches regarding investment strategies, policies and general expertise.

Holding space for difficult conversations

How do we have difficult conversations - whether about race, finances or anything else - within our congregations and people with differing perspectives? College Street Congregational Church developed "Communication Guidelines to Strengthen Our Community" and have kindly shared it for other churches to consider. The Vermont Conference Annual Meeting also adopts "A Covenant for Dialog" at the beginning of each Annual Meeting. Please feel free to use these documents in your local church.
